

Plants!

Over the half-term, Year 3 have been learning all about plants. We've been looking at a plants key features, it's life cycle, and the different ways seeds are dispersed.

We have performed two experiments this half term, testing what plants need to grow and how water is transported. We've written our own method, made predictions, and discussed the importance of a fair test.

