

27th August

This week we have been developing our teamworking skills. During circle time we played a listening game where we had to work together to create a huge spider web by rolling a ball of string to each other. It was really important we all played our part and didn't let go of the string! We made a great spider web!

