

Date: Tuesday 17th November 2020
Learning Intention: To make style choices appropriate to the purpose of writing. ✓
Anti-Bullying Week 2020

Agony Aunt Letter:
Dear Agony Aunt,
I am having some problems at school and I'm really hoping you can help me. There are two girls in my class I like to play with at break times but they keep playing tricks on me in the classroom. They hide my water bottle at the end of the day so I am late going home and they keep knocking my coat off my peg. When they see me pick it up they look at each other and laugh loudly. I don't want to tell the teacher because I am scared they will stop playing with me at break times. Please help me!

Agony Aunt Reply:
Dear Reader, I thank you for sending me a letter. I have had it this. How are they hanging onto you when you are with friends? I think this is really horrible what they are doing to you! That is so wrong! They are probably jealous of something you have got or they are being bullied themselves and are trying to get you down so to be with them. You will probably make or get new friends. If they are happy on then tell a teacher or a trusted adult and maybe they will stop this and find some new friends for now. From Agony Aunt Hallie x x x

Anti-Bullying Week

Date: Tuesday 17th November 2020
Learning Intention: To make style choices appropriate to the purpose of writing. ✓
Anti-Bullying Week 2020

Agony Aunt Letter:
Dear Agony Aunt,
I am having some problems at school and I'm really hoping you can help me. There are two girls in my class I like to play with at break times but they keep playing tricks on me in the classroom. They hide my water bottle at the end of the day so I am late going home and they keep knocking my coat off my peg. When they see me pick it up they look at each other and laugh loudly. I don't want to tell the teacher because I am scared they will stop playing with me at break times. Please help me!

Agony Aunt Reply:
Dear Reader, thank you for your letter. I know how you feel. You should tell a teacher or tell someone you trust. If you want to you could ask someone else to be your friend. They are bullies so don't play with them or like I said ask someone else. Don't forget to tell them when they knock off your coat of your peg this is what they want. Agony Aunt Hallie ✓

Date: Tuesday 17th November 2020
Learning Intention: To make style choices appropriate to the purpose of writing. ✓
Anti-Bullying Week 2020

Agony Aunt Letter:
Dear Agony Aunt,
I am having some problems at school and I'm really hoping you can help me. There are two girls in my class I like to play with at break times but they keep playing tricks on me in the classroom. They hide my water bottle at the end of the day so I am late going home and they keep knocking my coat off my peg. When they see me pick it up they look at each other and laugh loudly. I don't want to tell the teacher because I am scared they will stop playing with me at break times. Please help me!

Agony Aunt Reply:
Dear Reader, thanks for the letter. What a tough situation you are in! It's so felt like this before. I think those girls are bullies. Bullies are usually jealous of things that you have. Tell the teacher or someone you really trust. They could be jealous of your coat or water bottle. Don't play with them. They might have been bullied themselves. Don't react to what they do to you. Make other friends. I believe in you so much. Love from Agony Aunt Lottie. ✓

Date: Tuesday 17th November 2020
Learning Intention: To make style choices appropriate to the purpose of writing. ✓
Anti-Bullying Week 2020

Agony Aunt Letter:
Dear Agony Aunt,
I am having some problems at school and I'm really hoping you can help me. There are two girls in my class I like to play with at break times but they keep playing tricks on me in the classroom. They hide my water bottle at the end of the day so I am late going home and they keep knocking my coat off my peg. When they see me pick it up they look at each other and laugh loudly. I don't want to tell the teacher because I am scared they will stop playing with me at break times. Please help me!

Agony Aunt Reply:
Dear Reader, thank you for your letter. How awful! I know how you feel. This is ~~agony~~ bullying. Tell a teacher straight away! Friends do not treat their friends like this. Play with some other people. They could be jealous of your water bottle and coat because they are being bullied. The girls might have been bullied as well so they did it to stop playing with them immediately. Speak to your Mum and Dad. You are lovely. From Agony Aunt Hallie. ✓