

Information Booklets

This week, Year 2 used iPads and books to research a sport of their choice. They then used their research to make mini information books, including a contents page and glossary. Some children also presented their work to the rest of class. Well done Year 2!

