

Investigating Reflections

Team 3 have been learning all about light and how it can reflect off of surfaces. We discussed how light can reflect better off of some surfaces compared to others and performed an investigation to find what the most reflective surface in our classroom was. The most reflective material was one of our team's coats!