

Investigating magnetic forces

In today's science lesson, Year 3 have been investigating with magnets! Today, we compared a variety of materials on the basis of whether they are attracted to a magnet, and identified that some magnetic materials.

We walked around our school whilst testing different materials with magnets. We observed that not all metals are magnetic, there must be either iron, nickel, or cobalt inside to make it magnetic.