

Cardboard Coalville Workshop

Year 3 had a visit from some volunteers at the Coalville CAN benefit society. We have been learning about different monuments this half-term, such as Stone Henge. Today, we worked with artists to create some cardboard monuments to represent the National Forest. We decided to base our monuments on animals, insects, and trees, and worked with the volunteers to help bring our ideas to life!

