

Shadow Fun!

Finally the sun was shining this afternoon so we got the chance to investigate our shadows and their shapes! We talked about how the Sun's position in the sky affects the length of the shadow. When the Sun is low on the horizon, the shadows are long. When the Sun is high in the sky, the shadows are much shorter.

