

Natural Artwork

Since Team 3 have been learning about plants in our science lessons, we decided to make some plant-themed artwork out of... well... plants!

During our forest school sessions, we looked around the woods for different materials that we could use to represent the flower, stem leaves, and roots whilst discussing their functions!

We've had some brilliant displays of teamwork and creativity!

Well done Team 3!