

For part of our 'Time Traveller' ILP, we made portal sculptures. We collected different natural materials from Dusty's Wood then layered them carefully to create the illusion of a portal disappearing into the distance. We hope you like them ... but take care not to be pulled through any!

