

Tuesday 1st September

Today we found some special clues hidden around the school. We followed each clue carefully. They led us to the woods where we found a dinosaur egg! We looked closely at the egg - it is pink and speckled. We brought the egg back to school and are watching it carefully to see if it hatches!

