

In science, we went on a hunt around the school to find invertebrates. We looked under leaves, in the soil and under wood and rocks to find our specimens. We ticked off the invertebrates that we found then classified them as annelids, insects, arachnids or molluscs.

