

Independent Research

Year 3 are learning all about Europe and it's many countries this half-term. In this lesson, children split into pairs and drew a random European country from a hat. Then, we used the computers to carry out some independent research about that country!

