

Erupting Volcanoes!

As part of our Geography topic, we've been learning all about the life cycle of a volcano! Today, we put our knowledge to good use and created our own erupting volcanoes! We used vinegar, food colouring, and bicarbonate of soda to mimic the magma rising through the conduit before erupting through the crater!