

Cave Paintings

This week, we've been looking at how people lived during the Stone Age. We learned how early humans made different tools to complete tasks, and looked at some early cave paintings. After making our own paint and tools, we created our own cave paintings to use as a display at school!