

Science Week - Sorting plastic

We talked about what plastic is used for and its advantages and disadvantages. We watched a video about a scientist who works at a car factory using plastic to make car parts. She needs to know which type of plastic is which so that it can be recycled correctly. We followed her instructions to sort and classify a selection of plastics. We used a classification key.

