

We had a great Forest School session today! We enjoyed building dens together and making transient art using sticks and leaves. We also worked on our tool skills making stick men using a potato peeler and investigated the different colours of autumn using a colour palette.

