

Our First School Swimming Lesson

We had a great swimming session today! The children blew us away with their courage, independence and listening skills. Well done Year 2, you made me very proud!

