

This week we have been learning about representing numbers in different ways. We enjoyed making our own colourful number lines using finger painting!

26th August