

Designing our own prehistoric tools

After learning about the incredible ways that prehistoric humans created tools, we had a go at designing our own!

We even had some examples like antler picks and flint daggers to inspire our work.

Our ideas were limited to materials that were only available in prehistoric times, like wood, flint and bone!

Tribe 3 produced some fantastic sketches of really useful items!

