

Developing sculpting techniques

This half term, Year 3 are developing our sculpting skills. Our project is to create an erupting volcano using clay. We watched some videos of erupting volcanoes and discussed the textures of volcanic rock and lava. We then experimented with a piece of clay to create two different textures. We found that by using a paintbrush dipped in water we can brush the clay to create a smooth, flowing effect.