

Paul Jackson Pollock

We have been learning about famous abstract artists in Year Two. Today we learnt about the abstract artist Paul Jackson Pollock who was famous for his drip technique of pouring and splashing household liquids and paint onto a horizontal surface. Year Two used marbles and paint to produce similar pieces of art and we were very impressed the results!

