

Today we went on a dinosaur hunt! We followed clues around the school and found some fossils hidden in the woods! We took turns to have a look at each one and next week we're going to have a go at sketching them.

2nd September